

My Horse Notebook

For Kids Who Love Horses

Stories • Dreams • Notes • Discoveries

Robyn Smith

HOW TO USE YOUR HORSE NOTEBOOK

These pages are yours!

Use your notebook to write, wonder, imagine, plan, doodle, or collect ideas about the horses and animals you love.

Notebook Ideas:

- start a story
- write about a favorite horse
- keep a list of questions you want to explore
- jot down TRUE EQ facts you discover
- create a character or adventure
- record something you noticed
- make plans, lists, or sketches
- write down a dream for the future

There is no right way to fill in these pages.

Write a little or a lot. Skip around. Come back later. Add drawings in the margins if inspiration strikes.

Most of all, stay curious and make this notebook your own.

PARENTS & FAMILIES

Want more free horse-centered reading and activities?

Join Pony Partners, the free RiseUp EQ membership for families who love animals.

Members can enjoy bonus resources such as:

- extra printable pages
- reading adventures
- puzzles and activities
- coloring pages
- TRUE EQ learning
- new free-resource updates
- special Pony Partner bonuses

It's an easy way to keep the reading, creativity, and learning going.

JOIN PONY PARTNERS — FREE

[riseupeq.com/\[FINAL-PONY-PARTNERS-URL\]](http://riseupeq.com/[FINAL-PONY-PARTNERS-URL])

RiseUp
EQ PRESS